To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, Guardian of Eva M. Wilson, minor heir of William H. H. Wilson, late of Brewer, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said Minor is seized and possessed of the following described real estate, viz

One undivided third part of three several parcels of real estate, viz The homestead in said Brewer of the late Stillman Wilson, consisting of farm buildings and about three acres of land,—about sixteen acres of land in said Brewer on the northwesterly side of Green Point road, at the junction of said road and Wilson's road so-called as the sixteen acre lot,—about one hundred acres of wild land in Holden, in said County. The above parcels being all the lands that said Stillman Wilson owned at the time of his death. Said Eva M. Wilson's interest in said lands comes to her by inheritance from her father, the said William H. H. Wilson, who had the same by inheritance from his father, the said Stillman Wilson, subject to the widow's right of dower therein, it being the same described in deeds recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County.

That it would be for the benefit of said minor that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof put out at interest, or otherwise used for her benefit.

She therefore prays that license may be granted her to sell and convey the above described real estate at public or private sale, according to the requirement of law

SAD RESULTS

Traced to Overworked Minds and Bodies.

SUICIDES, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, PARALYSIS.

Heart Diseases and Sudden Deaths.

One after another of the great men of the nation are taking and most of them in middle life, all victims to overwork. Can we afford to lose such men? Those men dead of nervous prostration in the midday of their usefulness, and in the last year how many business men and women have suddenly fallen out of the ranks either into untimely graves or to a worse fate. The business men of the nation are killing themselves by over work of mind, if not of body, and we call it "nervous prostration." The middle class is suffering in the same way. Overwork, the pressure of the times, worry, fret and anxiety, are rendering us a weak and suffering generation. No man would commit suicide if his nervous system was in a state of perfect health. It is inevitably the result of nervousness in some form or other. Now, is it not time that we, as a people, should seriously examine into this matter, and seek a remedy, if one can be found? The nervous system must be sustained and built up in proportion to its waste and disintegration or we must suffer. The facts prove that this waste is not supplied by our ordinary diet and living. The refined manner of living now does not give to us in our food enough of nerve food, or enough of that which goes to make nerve matter, to meet the demand made upon the nervous system, and the result is nervous prostration, paralysis, apoplexy, despondency, neuralgia, headache, sleeplessness and premature death. We all know that these are facts, and acknowledge the importance of a remedy. Now, with all professional candor, I can say, after years of experience in their use, and sustained by the testimony of many thousands in this city and elsewhere, that my CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS do and will supply this needed material to the nervous system. They are a nerve food. Their first effect is to promote digestion, thereby curing dyspepsia, secondly, they enter into the nervous fluid and create nerve matter, and in this way permanently cure nervous prostration, despondency, headache, neuralgia, nervousness, etc., by removing the causes of these diseases and securing the system against paralysis and apoplexy, etc. They contain no opium or morphia, nor any narcotic whatever, and can safely be used for any length of time—The extract of celery is the great nerve maker, and the extract of chamomile the great promoter of digestion and nervous sedative, but their combined effect is wonderful, indeed, curing cases that have resisted all other treatment, even by the best of physicians. Anybody and everybody, I don't care who they are, would be improved by taking one or these pills after breakfast and dinner for a while. People that want a clear complexion and smooth skin, free of disease, must keep their nervous system in a healthy state. Domestic care and business anxiety often make quite as serious inroads upon the nervous system as the higher order of mental work, and thousands of people are eking out a miserable existence, suffering from nervous weakness and sick and nervous headache, that could be perfectly cured by availing themselves of this remedy. It is certainly worth a trial in every case. The claims of this preparation are recognized by the profession, I am glad to say, and largely used and recommended by them. And why should it not be so? It is not a patent medicine. It is the result of my own experience in the practice of medicine, and my professional standing I will let the following letter from Prof. Samuel Chew, Sr., speak.

Respectfully,

DR. C. W. BENSON.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15, 1860.

DR. C. W. BENSON is a graduate of the School of Medicine of the University of Maryland. While a pupil of that institution he was distinguished for industry and zeal in the pursuit of professional knowledge, and his examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine was entirely satisfactory to his instructors. I have known him for several years and believe him to be a physician eminently prepared to be useful, and also of unexception able moral character. I take great pleasure in commending him to the esteem and confidence of the community.

THE DEMOCRATIC SPIDER IN MAINE.

[From the Boston Journal.]

Those who sustain the relation of auditors and spectators are usually in a position to judge better of the merits of a performance and are able to get a clearer insight into the designs of the actors than are those who are in any way connected with the spectacle. It is rarely possible, therefore, that the Democratic and Greenback leaders in Maine who are now engaged in what they advertise as "The Great Political Reform Movement," will be judged by the impartial spectator to be performing a charade derived from that well-known fable entitled "The Spider and the Fly," the part of the fly, which was of the most consequence so long as it was a story, being represented by the Greenbackers, while the Democratic plotters, who eventually victimized the fly, will ably support the character of the spider.

Just now the Democratic organ and manager in Maine are whispering all manner of sweet things into the ear of the Greenbacker. Both tell the latter how, altogether, a perfect being he is, and almost sadly sigh that it is because of their own imperfections that they are not believers in the creed of that party which proposes by an act of Congress and a printing machine to give everybody everything. Many of these Democratic leaders in Maine are so delighted with the Greenbacker that they declare that the Greenback candidate for Governor shall have half the votes given last year for the Democratic candidate. In the gush of their affection—but in nothing else—they remind one of the old lady parishioner of the Rev. Dr. Payson, with whom he took tea, and who insisted in adding tumberless spoonfuls of molasses to the tea of that excellent and devoted man, against which he remonstrated, but which she insisted on with the remark: "Why, Doctor Payson, the tea wouldn't be too good for you if it was all molasses." Just now, and until after election, or until the services of the Greenback voter can be dispensed with, he will be treated with the most effusive demonstrations of regard by the Democratic spider.

There may be many men in Maine who hold to Republican views on most national issues, but who have been taken with this fiat money heresy, and so taken up with it that they have not been able to see the purpose of the Democratic leaders. The fact that the Democrats and those coming from the party secured every office but one in the gift of the last Legislature that was of any consequence, and that the best offices in the gift of the Governor, with a single exception, have been given to men who a year ago were Democrats, and who will be as much Democrats as ever in 1880, has doubtless opened the eyes of many. The Republican-Greenbacker may not be aware of all the trading and manipulations that have taken place since last winter. It may doubtless surprise him to know that his party platform was seen and approved by certain Democratic managers before it was submitted to the Convention at Portland. If he is of an inquiring turn of mind, he may ask himself why it was that the State Committee of his party and that of the Democratic party held meetings in neighboring rooms at Portland and a meeting in one room in Augusta later. If these Democrats are hard money men, why are they in conference with the leaders of a party whose only principle is hostile to a currency based upon metal? If they are really Greenbackers, why do they make a separate nomination for Governor and why does the Chairman of that Democratic State Committee declare in a recent letter that the only issue in this campaign is that which the differences between the Democratic Congress and the Republican President involves?

Let him seek an answer in the indications thus far developed. The Greenbackers have made Senatorial nominations in three counties. In Kennebec, a Democrat and a trading Republican were nominated, and two real Greenbackers who run last year were laid aside. In Washington, two out-and-out Democrats were nominated. In York, two of the candidates were from the Democratic party and one was a Greenback Republican. The Democratic Convention, which was held the next week, indorsed the two candidates of Democratic antecedents or tendencies, but rejected the other.

Now let the Republican Greenbacker, who has politically no confidence in or sympathy with the Bourbon leaders in Maine—the Pillsburys, the Sanborns, the Andersons—watch the action of all the Senatorial conventions and nominations for Representatives, and we venture to predict that he will find that no out-and-out Greenbacker will be nominated unless the combination managers are satisfied that he will obey their orders.

And what does this all mean, he may ask. Simply this, the Legislature elected in 1880 will choose a United States Senator. Just now the honest Greenbacker is being led to believe that Solon Chase will be selected for that position if the Democratic-Greenback combination controls a majority of the Legislature. If such men are elected by a union of the Greenbackers and Democrats as have been nominated in the counties referred to, Mr. Chase will stand no more chance of being made United States Senator than he does of being proclaimed King of the Cannibal Isles of Tycoon of China. Mr. E. F. Pillsbury, who has so lately distinguished himself by a malicious attempt to defame the military record of Mr. Davis, the Republican candidate for Governor, and who during the war reviled Abraham Lincoln and bitterly assailed the war policy, will probably be chosen United States Senator. If he should fail, then the choice would fall upon General Anderson of Portland or some man who has been all his days the bitterest of Democratic leaders and the fiercest denouncer of the war for the Union, and who, in the Senate, would be to Maine what Voorhees is to Indiana. Further than this, the adroit Democratic managers and a very few of the Greenback leaders expect, with such a Legislature this year, to organize the several Congressional districts so as to ensure the nomination of candidates in 1880 who, like Dr. Ladd, if elected, will sustain all the measures devised and dictated by the Democratic Congressional caucus.

Our advices from Maine, public and private, lead us to believe that several thousand Republicans who voted the Greenback ticket last year, either because they conceived that there was some virtue in the Greenback theory or for other cause, will not consent this year to play the part of the vain and foolish fly to the Democratic spider.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.

REDUCTION OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST

A memorandum of the financial operations of the Government has been issued from the Treasury, showing a reduction in the interest bearing debt from the highest point, August 31, 1865, to July 1, 1879, amounting to $583,386,594 96, and the reduction in the annual interest charge when the present funding operations are completed (August 1, 1879) will be $67,203,929.37. The total debt less cash in the Treasury has been reduced $760,016,666.40 since Aug. 31, 1865. The bonds refunded under acts of July 14, 1870, and January 20, 1871, will amount to $1,306,022,000, on which the annual interest charge was $31,673,387.

In place of these bonds there will be issued when the present refunding operations are completed, which will not be later than Aug. 1, 1879, bonds on which the annual interest charge will be $61,705,880, making an annual saving hereafter in the interest charge on account of refunding operations of $19,907,607, of which $14,297,177 arises from transactions since March 1, 1877. Bonds have been sold for resumption purposes since March 1, 1877, the interest on which represents the annual cost of the coin reserve, as follows:

Title of loan.	Rate per cent.	Amount	Annual Interest.
Funded loan of 1881	6	$65,000,000	$2,925,000
Funded loan of 1907	5	25,000,000	1,000,000
Total		$90,000,000	$3,925,000

Making a net annual saving through the refunding and resumption operations, since March 1, 1877, of $10,372,177. In addition to the above bonds there were issued in 1878, to replace coin used in payment of the Halifax award, 4 per cent. bonds of 1907 amounting to $5,500,000. In 1865 the annual interest was $4.29 on the population of the country, while to-day it is but $1.09.

As an indication of the general improvement in the business of this State the earnings of the Maine Central R. R. Company for the last six months are, as we learn from a responsible source, fifty thousand dollars greater than for the corresponding period in 1878, with probabilities of a still larger proportionate increase for the remainder of the year.—Portland Press.

Will the Maine Standard give the war record of Captain (?) R. W. Black, who procured the pension for Corporal Davis? And also furnish the affidavits or copies thereof from which the Standard made up the military record of Mr. Davis as published in that paper.—Kennebec Journal.

We hope Mr. Black will promptly furnish the Standard with the information called for. As Mr. Black who claims the honors of a veteran, has taken an active part in encouraging Pillsbury's slandering assault upon the war record of Mr. Davis, he ought to be ready to show up his own. We should like to know the date of Black's commission as Captain, and the regiment and corps that he served in. Mr. Black as a Greenbacker may find that assisting in malicious assaults upon the record of a faithful Union Soldier will not yield political dividends in Maine. Walk up to the scratch Mr. Black and tell the public about your war service.

The letter which we print to-day from Capt. Wilson, of Co. F. First Maine Cavalry, shows how far slander will spread and also how promptly those who wore the blue come to the defence of their comrades when unjustly assailed. Captain Wilson, who is now Principal of the Goshen Institute at Goshen, N. Y., saw Pillsbury's slander in print and at once wrote the manly and earnest letter which we print to-day. The pride and interest thus manifested by the Captain of Co. F., in vindicating the record of one of his command against wanton assault, shows the spirit of the true soldier, and is as honorable to him as it is to Mr. Davis. Pillsbury has waked up the soldiers more thoroughly than he did with the Kingfield riot, as will be seen by the other earnest letters published to-day.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT. One of the most energetic business men of this section writes us that since January 1st, business of all kinds has steadily improved, and that he is unable to fill his orders for manufactured goods, largely for the use of farmers. The market has been cleared out of seasonable goods, and dealers are driven as in 1871-2. In various towns in this vicinity $1.50 per day and board is offered for men and still help is scarce. From one of our seaport towns in Waldo we learn that every vessel owned there is doing a good business and paying a profit to captains and owners. A letter from the Gregg Iron Works states that they never before had so large a trade, and the Higganum Manufacturing Company write that they are driven to their utmost capacity in filling orders. All begin to concede that business has not only touched bottom, but that we are well started on the up-grade with steady improvement every day. Resumption and the confidence inspired by a sound currency basis have done the work, and if people will only stop grumbling and threatening financial disturbance through politics, and take hold in earnest we shall soon enter upon an era of grand prosperity.

HOSTILITY TO UNION SOLDIERS. Mr. C. G. Thwing, of China, a wounded Union soldier, has lost his place on the Capitol police, Washington, being kicked out by the Confederates because he "fit on the wrong side," the side that don't harmonize exactly with their notion of civil service reform. "Damn pity it hadn't killed him," was the expression of one of those "womanly-natured" Southern gentlemen at Washington, seeking office, when informed that Thwing had been seriously wounded during the war, fighting for the Union. Mr. Thwing has returned to his home in China.—Kennebec Journal.

PILLSBURY'S BOOMERANG.

Indignation of the Soldiers.

Ringing Letter from Capt. Wilson of Co. F, First Maine.

GOSHEN, N. Y., July 14, 1879.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

In a copy of a political sheet published in Augusta, I see a most malignant attack upon the military record of Hon. D. F. Davis, Republican candidate for Governor of Maine. I have no doubt his old comrades in Maine, the fighting men of his company, will refute these vile slanders, yet, as an officer who controlled the last of his work at the "front," I wish to "add my testimony." For myself and those who knew him in the "field," there is no need to nail these falsehoods, and I hazard the opinion that the maligners of his military record were never near enough to the front to know what a brave soldier was.

In the fall of 1864 a large part of his regiment, the First D. C. Cavalry, was transferred to the First Maine Cavalry to fill our depleted ranks. Of seventy-seven men transferred on paper to my company, but ten reported for duty, among them Corporal Davis. Coming into a regiment whose members may modestly claim a reputation for fighting, Corporal Davis at once showed himself equal to the best, and during the picketing, scouting, raiding and fighting of the ever memorable campaign of '64-65, Corporal Davis was with his command at the front and on duty, which meant with the First Maine, fighting the enemy. Returning from one of our midwinter expeditions, the Belfield raid on the Weldon Railroad, where, as was customary, the boys were in light marching order and without tents, or a chance to use them even, with temperature at zero, and fighting and tearing up railroads amid cold, snow and sleet, Corporal Davis, with others, was found to be sick and unfit for duty. I had heretofore ordered him to the front; now he was sent to the rear to be cared for. He had done his duty, paid the penalty, and for obeying orders he is now stigmatized as a hospital bummer, by malignant political enemies. This slimy ooze that drips from the pens of his traducers cannot hurt him. He has too many friends who WERE THERE AND KNOW what he did and was.

He was a non-commissioned officer? Yes, and the peer of any officer in his company or regiment. All could not wear the straps. All did not who should. It was largely due to the character of such men in the ranks as Corporal Davis, that the State of Maine enjoys its proud military reputation to-day.

Of his record while in the D. C. Cavalry, others can testify. Of the glory that attended the arms of the "First Maine" during the close of the war, the D. C. boys bore an honorable part, and none is more deserving of credit than Corporal D. F. Davis.

Soldiers of Maine! Last year your banners trailed for the first time in the dust. Now your standard-bearer is from your own ranks. Rally around him.

Form a "Corporal's Guard" in every town, and go in to win. Honor our State: honor ourselves by making Corporal Daniel F. Davis Governor of Maine.

Very respectfully,

JOEL WILSON,
Late Captain Co. F, First Maine Cavalry.

FROM A COMRADE WHO WAS A GREENBACKER LAST FALL.

CARMEL, July 14, 1879.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

As one who served with Daniel F. Davis in Co. D, First D. C. Cavalry, I wish to add my protest, with my many comrades, against the scandalous attack upon his military record.

I served with Mr. Davis in the field, and I always found him a brave and good soldier, and willing to do his duty. I am confident that every soldier in Co. D will unite with me in the conviction that although there were many of the sons of Maine that were true and brave, there were none more brave or true, or more highly respected than D. F. Davis.

Whoever undertakes to belittle the good name of Mr. Davis, as a citizen or a soldier, engages in a dirty act that can never be accomplished; and the editor of the Standard and others of similar type will, on the 8th of next September, come to the realizing sense that the "boys in blue" will resent, by the ballot that infamous slander upon the army record of Mr. Davis.

Although I voted the Greenback ticket last fall, I shall feel proud to record my vote next September for the brave soldier and patriot, who will fill the Gubernatorial chair with honor to himself and the State.

—Hon. D. F. Davis.

Yours, respectfully,

JAMES M. BOYD.

FROM THE SERGEANT OF CO. F.

NEW YORK, July 12, 1879.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

Hearing some slanderous reports in regard to Mr. Davis and his military record I want to say that so far as I have seen and heard they are all false. I was in the service with Mr. Davis, did duty with him, was in different engagements with him, and in all he was trustworthy and efficient as any man in my company, ever ready for duty in any active service and I think every honest man of his acquaintance while in the army will certify to the truth and make his army record plain and bright to all.

SAMUEL W. BRIDGHAM,
formerly of Co. D. 1st D. C., and late Sergeant Co. F. 1st Maine Cavalry.

[Mr. Bridgham was with the regiment constantly throughout its service and has the name of every skirmish and battle of the 1st D. C. and 1st Maine Cavalry, noted on the back of his commission. He was on the line and saw Lieut. Parkman, Austin B. White and others shot in the engagement in which Mr. Davis took active part as heretofore mentioned.]

WEEKLY COURIER.

CAMPAIGN EDITION

For 1879.

To be issued Ten Weeks, beginning July 11th, and closing September 19th.

A NEWSPAPER FURNISHED AT LESS THAN COST.

In compliance with requests by many leading Republicans and with a desire to promote the dissemination of Republican principles and to aid in assuring the most emphatic Republican triumph in the approaching State election, the Proprietors have decided to furnish the WEEKLY edition of the WHIG AND COURIER for the ten weeks during the Campaign at a price hardly covering the cost of the white paper. The first number of the Campaign WEEKLY COURIER, which is made up with the latest telegraphic and other news from our Daily, will be issued July 18th, and the last number will be issued September 19th, with a report of our State election.

The edition will comprise ten weekly numbers of the largest paper published in the State, each number accompanied by a two-page supplement, and will be furnished at the following low rates:

One Copy, sent Postage paid 25 cts.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

Three Copies to one address,	.70
Ten Copies to one address,	2.25
Twenty Copies to one address,	4.25
Fifty Copies to one address,	10.50
One Hundred Copies to one address,	17.75

We have determined to offer the Campaign COURIER at this low price solely with the object of bringing to the attention of those who do not now take any Republican paper, the current information upon which a sound political judgment should be based, and the merits and claims of the doctrines and principles which we advocate.

The coming Campaign will be one of great importance, and promises to exceed any previous contest in interest and excitement. It is already manifest that misrepresentation, calumny and sensational reports will be freely employed to deceive the public, and it is essential that reliable and trustworthy information should be most widely circulated to counteract such misleading influences. Every citizen should keep fully posted concerning public affairs during the progress of the Campaign and the WEEKLY COURIER, with its forty-eight columns principally devoted to current news, will prove a most desirable compendium of information to be put in the hands of every voter.

Send in Subscriptions at once.

The Republican Town Committees and all other citizens who are interested, in the success of the Republican Cause are invited to render practical and valuable aid by taking prompt measures for placing the Campaign edition of the WHIG AND COURIER in the hands of every voter who is not now a subscriber. The price is merely nominal, and the efforts of two or three earnest Republicans in each town can readily insure a general circulation of the paper among the voting population.

TO THE HONEST TRUTH

With the above title, the undersigned will publish at Augusta, Maine, a campaign paper, beginning Tuesday, July 29th, and running to the end of the campaign; devoted to the "Honest Truth" about the MONEY QUESTION and the SOUTHERN QUESTION.

The Honest Truth will especially devote its columns to the interests of the Laboring man, and will expose the folly and wickedness of the Demagogues and Democrats who are now seeking to array Labor against Capital and Capital against Labor—thus taking away all chance for the return of good times now dawning upon us.

The Honest Truth will show how the Northern Democrats and Greenbackers in Congress have voted for everything the Southern Rebels have demanded. It will expose the record of Ladd and Murch, Greenback Congressmen from Maine, and show that they voted with the Southern Rebels all the time.

The Honest Truth will advocate the election of DANIEL F. DAVIS as Governor of Maine. He is the first PRIVATE SOLDIER ever nominated for high office in the United States. He is a man of the people, from the people, with the people. Let's give him a lift, Boys!

The Honest Truth will be handsomely printed with clear type, on good paper, and each number will contain fourteen full columns of reading matter; the columns to be the same length as the Lewiston Daily Journal. The first number will contain, with other matter, the speech to be delivered by Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, at Portland, July 23d.

THE HONEST TRUTH

With the above title, the undersigned will publish at Augusta, Maine, a campaign paper, beginning Tuesday, July 29th, and running to the end of the campaign; devoted to the "Honest Truth" about the MONEY QUESTION and the SOUTHERN QUESTION.

The Honest Truth will especially devote its columns to the interests of the Laboring man, and will expose the folly and wickedness of the Demagogues and Democrats who are now seeking to array Labor against Capital and Capital against Labor—thus taking away all chance for the return of good times now dawning upon us.

The Honest Truth will show how the Northern Democrats and Greenbackers in Congress have voted for everything the Southern Rebels have demanded. It will expose the record of Ladd and Murch, Greenback Congressmen from Maine, and show that they voted with the Southern Rebels all the time.

The Honest Truth will advocate the election of DANIEL F. DAVIS as Governor of Maine. He is the first PRIVATE SOLDIER ever nominated for high office in the United States. He is a man of the people, from the people, with the people. Let's give him a lift, Boys!

The Honest Truth will be handsomely printed with clear type, on good paper, and each number will contain fourteen full columns of reading matter; the columns to be the same length as the Lewiston Daily Journal. The first number will contain, with other matter, the speech to be delivered by Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, at Portland, July 23d.

Terms of Honest Truth for the entire campaign, cash in advance:

A TERRIFIC TEMPEST.

THE SEVEREST EVER EXPERIENCED IN BOSTON.

Great Loss of Life and Property.

The Gathering and Bursting of the Storm.

BOSTON, July 16 Soon after 4 o'clock this afternoon a storm of terrific violence burst over this city Throughout the day the weather had been intensely hot, and about 3 P M the sky presented an appearance which indicated a blow, and from the peculiar hurid clouds gathering a hurricane was thought probable When the storm burst these opinions were fully verified as it was one of the severest tempests that ever swept over Boston The duration of the storm's greatest violence was about 25 minutes, and in that period great damage was done to life and property Reports from various points down the harbor continue to accounts of serious damage and disastrous accidents Many small yachts and boats were capsized The most serious disaster yet reported is that of the small sloop Myrtle, of Charlestown, having on board four women, a man and boy. The sloop was capsized off Bird Island and all but the man, who clung to the upturned bottom, were drowned

Further accounts of disasters down the harbor are not as yet obtainable, but there probably was a large loss of life and property Hail fell and a number of windows were broken, many trees blown down and some houses unroofed, chimneys toppled over and the flood in some of the streets from a river of several inches depth. Along the wharves are many anxious people earnestly inquiring about the fate of friends who left the city on excursions. A planing mill in the city was struck by lightning and set on fire, and a fireman burned in the falling chimneys has not yet been extricated

THE DEATH OF JENNIE CLARK.

The Mystery Solved.

History of the Crime.

The Mother and a Sister's Testimony.

BOSTON, July 16. The mystery connected with the death of Jennie P. Clark, whose mutilated body was found some months since in a trunk, at Lynn, is now solved. Last night and this morning the following were arrested as guilty parties or accessories, Mr. Allen N. Adams at the Highlands, at whose house Jennie last worked, Mme. C. C. Goodrich, a female physician 21 La Grange street who is the alleged abortionist, Dr. Kimball of the same house, charged with being one of the principal accessories, mother and daughter (name not given) living at Somerville, at whose house Jennie is said to have died, but supposed to be guiltless of any criminal intent in the share they took.

They it appears were the nurses of Jennie at the house in Somerville. The facts as related by them and corroborated by other testimony are that on the 12th of February last when the Clark girl left her house in the Highlands having been a short time at the corner of Kneeland and Washington streets, she went direct to the house of Mme Goodrich on Lagrande street and that there an abortion was performed. She remained there for a few days and the 15th of February left for Somerville. Shortly after her arrival she was delivered of a fetus and for a while exhibited symptoms of getting well, soon however, her illness took an unfavorable turn and on the 25th inst. she died. Dr. Kimball and the madame had previously been notified of the turn matters were taking and the doctor went to Somerville arriving shortly after Jennie's death and assisting in packing up the body first with a pair of dentist's forceps, cutting off the nose of the dead girl.

The body was then put into a trunk, and on the following evening Kimball carried it in a buggy in the direction of Lynn. On reaching Fox Hill bridge, on the Saugus River, he put it overboard through the rails. This is the substance of the story of the two nurses of Jennie Clark in her last sickness, as told this morning to the detectives.

Many details are yet unknown, and the principals refuse to divulge anything, claiming their entire innocence, but their denial will be met by strong evidence and an indictment of all the parties by the Grand Jury at the next session will probably follow.

DROWNED. We were informed late last evening of the death by drowning, at Oldtown, yesterday afternoon, of a young man named Edward Folsom, son of Mr. Wyatt Folsom, of this city. The hour at which the intelligence reached us was so late that we could learn no particulars, but it was understood that he was in bathing when the accident occurred. He was about twenty-five or thirty years of age.

Frequent and just complaint has been made of the unfinished piece of sidewalk on State street from East Market Block to French street, as on the occasion of every rain it gullies out and becomes not only unpleasant but dangerous to pedestrians. It was examinined yesterday after the shower of Tuesday night, by a committee of the City Government, and the public will be glad to know, that it has been decided to have it laid in concrete.

NEWPORT ITEMS. An alarm of fire was given here Tuesday night about ten o'clock and all turned out. The fire proved to be quite a distance from here, we learn the fire was at Etna.——A little son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ireland that died Monday from diphtheria, was buried Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ireland have a daughter very sick with this dreadful disease, that is not expected to recover. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

WASHOUTS. The heavy storm of Tuesday night did considerable damage in one way and another. It completely washed away the top of the sidewalk on Union-st. beyond Thomas' hill, and left it in the gutter and road. On Hammond and State-st. hills the sewer basins were completely filled with sand, and during the heaviest of the storm, stone weighing ten or twelve pounds came rattling down over the paving stones of the gutters. A portion of a pile of small boards which had been placed in the gutter on Hammond st. was swept down street two or three hundred feet by the flood.

THE CENTRAL CHURCH and Sabbath School made their annual excursion down river yesterday, touching at Fort Point, from there to Isleboro, where they spent two hours in picnicking and enjoying themselves in various ways. The next point visited was Northport where an hour was enjoyed calling on friends and strolling about the grounds arriving in this city at half-past eight o'clock. The day was all that could be desired and with one accord it was acknowledged to be one of the pleasantest excursions ever made by the Society. The presence of the Bangor Cornet Band added very much to the pleasure of the occasion.

BURNED BY LIGHTNING. An Etna correspondent, "J. C. F.," writes that the dwelling house, barn and outbuildings of Mr. Henry T. Hardy were struck by lightning Tuesday evening and burned, together with twenty-five tons of hay, three cows, two hogs, one ox, an amount of farming tools, and the larger part of the furniture, a small portion, only, being saved in a damaged condition. Loss $3,000 to $3,500. Insured in the Bangor Mutual for $1,500. He also writes that the barn of Moses Abbot, of Etna, was also struck, but not set on fire and escaped with slight damage. The tempest was very severe and lasted considerable time.

TUESDAY NIGHT'S THUNDER STORM The thunder storm—for it was much more than a shower—of Tuesday night was unusually wide spread, extending over the whole eastern portion of the State, from some distance west of us to Calais on the eastern border. It was attended by an unusual amount of lightning, causing much damage, as will be seen by referring to our reports from various towns. The whole atmosphere was heavily charged with electricity, and at the telegraph office in this city the subtle element kept the operator constantly on the qui vive. A lady in the city who had retired for the night bethought herself of a window which had been left open, and into which she was afraid the rain would beat. She arose from her bed to close it, but no sooner had she placed her feet on the woolen carpet than she received a smart electric shock, her feet feeling, as she expressed it, as though pricked with thousands of needles. The shock was stronger, she said, than she has before received from a galvanic battery. She didn't shut the window, but hurreidly returned to her bed.

DEFENCE AGAINST PARTISAN SLANDER. For the benefit of certain loose-tongued people we state that, the person who wrote to this paper the vindication of Rev. Mr. Wade, of Newport, has no "tracks to cover up," and that he took no measure to "cover up any tracks." His name is known to the publishers of THE WHIG AND COURIER, as are the names of all its correspondents; and, although he does not care to parade it himself, he has no objection to its being given to any who may have interest enough in the matter to inquire for it. The time has not come when the news gatherers and writes for THE WHIG are ashamed to be known as vindicators of soldiers whose characters are assailed for political purposes by the sneaks who were stabbing the soldiers in the back during the war. The record of Rev. Mr Wade, although that gentleman modestly remarked that he did not want to make himself unduly prominent before the public, is one of which any conscientious man well be proud. It is no discredit to any man or minister of the gospel, that he carries the scars made by a rebel bullet which tore its way through his body.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING. During the heavy thunder shower of Tuesday evening, St. John's Catholic Church, on York St., was struck. The bolt struck the gilt cross surmounting the spire, cleaving large pieces from it, passed down the timbers to the ceiling of the church thence into the organ where it made sad havoc, melting the pipes, tearing one of the wind chests entirely in pieces and otherwise generally demoralizing it. Mr. Cobb, the tuner, had commenced work on the organ on Tuesday, and it was was only when he went to resume his work yesterday morning that it was discovered that the church had been struck. The damage to the organ—which is the finest in the State and one of the best in New England—is very considerable, and it will require some time to restore it. After striking the organ the fluid descended to the auditorium, smashing up a pew and doing other damage. Several bricks were thrown out of the wall near the eaves. The damage to the building is not material, although the roof will have to be repaired, the principal loss being the damage to the organ.

TRAMPS IN PITTSFIELD. Tuesday night four tramps made their appearance in Pittsfield; they remained quiet that night but the next morning started out on a raid selecting for their scene of operations houses from which the men were absent. Entering these they demanded, in an insolent manner, that food be given them. This was done, and though it was of good quality, it was refused and something better called for. At one house a woman gave them two nice loaves of newly baked bread, and after breaking off a small piece they threw the remainder away beside the road. Their actions alarmed the women of the village, who felt in danger from them, and an alarm being raised they were arrested at three o'clock by a deputy sheriff, and placed in confinement, the lock-up improvised for this purpose being one of the cattle cars on the Maine Central railroad, into which they were securely fastened, and through the bars of which they were subjected to the admiring (?) gaze of the enraged populace. They will be brought before a Trial Justice this morning and then sent to the Bangor jail. They gave their names as John Reynolds, of Portland; John Reed, of Biddeford; John McGinley, of Portland, and Edward Scully, of Woonsocket, R. I. Tuesday evening, Mr. Lancey, of the Pittsfield House, offered to give them work at logging, but, belonging to that higher order of gentry to whom labor is a disgrace, they refused his offer.

DEATH OF JOHN S. CHADWICK, ESQ. We regret to announce this morning the death of another of our oldest and well known citizens. John S. Chadwick, Esq., whose paralytic attack last Thursday evening was announced in the WHIG, had been gradually sinking until nine o'clock last evening, when he passed away. Mr. Chadwick was well known to, and highly esteemed by our citizens, having resided here over forty years, and held many important positions of trust both in the city and county, the duties of which have always been discharged to the satisfaction of all. He was Sheriff of Penobscot County for several terms, was an Alderman and Assessor of taxes in the city for a number of years, and more latterly was Secretary of the Bangor Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We believe he was also, at one time, Register of Deeds of Penobscot County. Mr. Chadwick was prominently connected with politics, and from the formation of the Republican party was an ardent supporter of its principles. He was born in Middleton, N. H., in 1800, removing to Dover, N. H., where for six or seven years he held the position of Deputy Sheriff, and from there removed to this city more than forty years ago. His age was seventy.

TRUE POLITENESS. A gentleman of this city, with three ladies, was out to Exeter Tuesday, and on their return they were met by the heavy shower, which came down in torrents, and made it so dark that it was unable to proceed. They therefore tried to obtain shelter for the night. After several vain attempts at houses where it appeared as if there might be accommodations, they came to a small, unpretending cottage, and on knocking at the door were met by two young men who kindly offered them such accommodations as their house would afford. They awoke their brother's wife, with whom they were stopping—her husband being absent on a drive—and while she prepared to entertain her guests, the young men went to the barn and took care of their horse. The lady,—for such she proved herself to be in the truest sense of the word,—made up a bed down stairs, with clean clothing, and another up stairs, and furnished the ladies with such articles as were needed for their comfort, and with which they were not prepared on account of their not expecting to be away over night, and all retired to enjoy a pleasant night's rest. In the morning it transpired that the young men,—who were at work securing their brother's hay while he was away earning money to help pay for his little place,—had with a spirit of true generosity, given up their own bed to the strangers, and had betaken themselves to the barn and made their bed on the hay mow. Such an act showed them to be possessed of the true spirit of politeness, and to be much more entitled to the name of gentlemen than many who wear fine clothes and assume that distinction. It was an act which confers the highest honor on the benefactors, and will long live in the memory of those so opportunely befriended.

BAR HARBOR AND MOOSEHEAD LAKE.

Grand Excursion Arrangement.

The Bangor and Bar Harbor Steamboat Co. and the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad Company will issue tickets on Monday next, taking passengers from Bar Harbor to Bangor by the steamer City of Bangor, giving them the evening and night in this city, thence over the B. & P. Railroad to Blanchard; thence by Morrison & Huntley's "Tally-ho" coaches to Greenville, and thence by steamers to Mt. Kineo, where they will arrive on Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock. Stopping at the Kineo House through Wednesday and Thursday, visiting places of interest in the vicinity, they can leave on Friday morning, arriving in Bangor the same evening, and taking the steamer City of Bangor Saturday morning arrive at Bar Harbor the same afternoon

It seems as it this was one of the most delightful excursions that can be planned, and that hundreds of those who spend the hot season at Mt. Desert will avail themselves of it to visit our beautiful inland sea which, at an elevation of one thousand feet above the sea level, affords one of the most charming views, and the most delightful, bracing atmosphere in the whole country, and at the same time will afford them an agreeable change from the sameness of an entire season at one place of resort. The attractions of this excursion are numerous and varied. First a sail of one hundred miles on a neat, comfortable and speedy steamer, through the charming scenery of Penobscot bay and river, unsurpassed in its kind by any in the country, then over a good railroad, through the beautiful and fertile Piscataquis valley, until the road terminates in an Alpine country, where peaks rising on peaks and clad in luxuriant verdue, furnish a roadway over which superb teams draw easy riding coaches, from which the tourist enjoys a view unparalelled in its magnificence in our State at least. And then—the Lake! What more enchanting than a sail over its broad expanse, dotted with its many picturesque islands, and surrounded with its majestic hills and mountains, seated in a comfortable and well appointed steamer with a Captain whose sole aim is to please and interest his passengers, and land them safely at their destination? For this grand excursion, giving in all a ride of four hundred miles, the fare is placed at the low rate of ten dollars from Bar Harbor to Kineo and return; or if the tourist desires to return only so far as this city the fare will be one dollar less. This arrangement will be continued until October first.

We anticipate this splendid arrangement will meet with great approval, and be the means of introducing many to the beauties of our Lake region who have never before enjoyed them.

FROM WEST WATERVILLE.

Political and Personal.

WEST WATERVILLE, July 16.

Editor of Whig and Courier:

A "Young Men's Davis League" was organized here last evening. Much enthusiasm was shown, and the young Republicans are thoroughly in earnest in their efforts to forward the election of the young standard-bearer of the party, Hon. D. F. Davis. The officers of the League are, Wm. T. Haines, President, (Vice Presidents to be reported next meeting;) Chas. H. Benjamin, Recording Secretary; John Greeley, Ass't R. S.; J. Wesley Gilman, Corresponding Secretary. To show our principles to the public the following preamble was adopted;

The establishment and maintenance of our National Finances upon a sound and healthy basis being essential to preserve order, insure business prosperity and promote the welfare of labor, it becomes necessary in order to counteract the pernicious of the Greenback heresy, to take individual and united action in opposition thereto. Considering it of the utmost of this question, whose views they may entertain, to unite with us in the support of honest money, and whose dishonor is our dishonor, we realize the importance of keeping faith with the public creditor, and upholding the hands of the Government by all honorable means in our power.

A constitution was adopted, and most of the necessary preliminaries were settled, and the League starts out with most flattering prospects.

RESIGNATION.

Rev. J. E. Clark, who for over a year has been the pastor of the Methodist church here, yesterday tendered his resignation, the same to take immediate effect. His reasons are: that he cannot remain in a false position; that he cannot believe in total depravity, eternal damnation, or the "new birth," as the Methodist sect views it. Mr. C. will remain in our village for the present.

STARTLING DISCOVERY!

A WOMAN FOUND IN A MILL.

Bound and Gagged.

LIVING BUT UNCONSCIOUS.

About half-past four o'clock yesterday afternoon, some boys who had gone to the Stillwater stream in Upper Stillwater to go in swimming, went into the Egery steam mill, which is unoccupied, and there found a woman bound and gagged! They at once gave the alarm, and when the people around arrived at the mill they found the woman apparently nearly dead and entirely unconscious, and it was believed that she had been outraged.

Mr. Hamblen, one of the Selectmen took her to the town poor farm and Drs. Norcross and Folsom were summoned to attend her. She proved to be Mrs. Adeline Sherman who had been employed at Arthur Sawyer's, in Upper Stillwater village. She left Mr. Sawyer's at seven o'clock Tuesday evening, and it is supposed getting caught in the shower which came up about eight o'clock, that she took refuge in the mill, when she was set upon by some tramp who was concealed there, gagged and outraged. Great excitement prevails in the village, and the authorities will use all endeavors to arrest the perpetrators. She had not been restored to consciousness when our informant left.

FROM OLDTOWN.

A Fiat Celebration.

Our latest despatch from Oldtown says The spirit of the would-be Fiat Governor pervades a large portion of the community. Men, women and children breathe and speak Fiat. A Fiat committee of Fiat citizens with a Fiat chairman spoke into existence a Fiat celebration, with Fiat fireworks and a Fiat free dinner for poor children. (The whiskey on hard-money basis, not Fiat) But the crowning consummation and glory of all is, the bills are to be paid in FIAT MONEY. The "Monitors" howl Fiat at it. The Ladies' Crusade sign Fiat at it. The printers, singers and grand chorus of the swindled hiss Fiat at it. Fiat at it!

FROM DEXTER.

Work Suspended at Dirigo Slate Quarry—Military—Different Matters—Personal.

DEXTER, July 16th.

Editor of Whig & Courier,

Operations have been suspended for the present at Dirigo State Quarry, in Monson, the work having been stopped last night. This company have now slate to the value of about $40,000 on hand, which is of fine quality. I understand, from parties who are in a way to know the circumstances, that a large amount of slate, of rather inferior quality is being put upon the market, and that the prices will rule very low, as the goods are a part of the assets of the failed firm of Howe, Higbee & Co., and are to be closed out as soon as possible at some price. The Dirigo Company is a strong one financially, and can hold their stock without embarrassment, and have decided to do so until the market calls for good slate at a fair price, and then they will sell. The managers think that operations at the Dirigo may possibly be resumed in the fall, but perhaps not until next spring. There are about thirty men who have been employed at this quarry. The people who depend upon the Monson quarries for their livelihood have rather a hard row to hoe. They can't tell what a day may bring forth, and those who suppose their "job" is permanent often find, to their sorrow, that such idea is a mistaken one. It is the firm belief, however, of men who have good judgment, that the slate business will eventually become so settled that it will afford constant and lucrative employment to laborers, and be a source of wealth to the operators, and work in a general way for the prosperity of the town.

May the day be hastened.

CO. H. MATTERS.

Lieutenant Bridges, of Co. H., Piscataquis Battalion (the Dexter Co.,) has been informed by communication from Col. J. B. Peaks that Capt. Alton P. Fassetts resignation as Captain of said company has been received and accepted; he therefore directs that the company be called together for the purpose of electing another Captain, and filling such other vacancies if any, as may occur in consequence of such election. It is understood that a meeting will be called for this purpose, one week from next Saturday. There seems to be very little interest manifest in military matters here just now, but the approach of the annual muster may operate as a quickener. It may be recollected that it was first voted to hold the next muster in this place, and that the location was subsequently changed to the old field, at Dover. Some may suggest that the company harbors a feeling which accounts for the prevailing lack of interest. But I have the best of reasons for saying that such is not the case by any means. It is to be hoped that the company will rally and attend the coming muster in good numbers; but should the case be different, it will not be on account of any ill-will on the part of the officers or members as the whole matter of changing the location was fully talked up some time ago. Col. Peaks came here for the special purpose of getting a full and fair understanding, and it was unanimously voted by the company to relinquish all claim to the matter. I was present at that meeting, and everything was harmonious. The lack of interest among the members of Co. H., must be attributed to some other cause.

VARIOUS SUBJECTS.

I suppose some of the readers of THE WHIG AND COURIER also see the Commercial occasionally, and if they do, they can but be impressed with the cutting satire which is manifested in the Dexter correspondence of that paper. It is not probable that this writer will long remain in a small country place like this—as soon as his wonderful work is known, some heavy metropolitan concern will be prompt to grab him up. He has already achieved some notoriety as a writer of fiction, but in his new capacity of satirist, he has lately come out before the public.

It is a favorite idea with some old-fogy-ish people to say that the farmers of "ye olden time" made as good headway with their haying operations before the invention of mowing machines and horse-rakes, as do the farmers of to-day, with all these facilities. One farmer of this town, Mr. John Brown, told me to-day that once last year he started his machine into the grass at three o'clock in the morning, and did not stop until he had taken down six acres; in the afternoon the whole of it was raked and cocked; the next morning he mowed over four acres of grass, which was also taken care of, and the hay from the six acres, cut and put up the day before, was put into the barn. Mr. Brown's crew consisted of himself, his son and his wife, who assisted with the rake, etc. I do not probably run any risk of mis-stating when I say that they all devoted their strict and undivided attention to the business. Mr. Brown says that he has a Wood's Improved Mower, which he has used six years, and that the only thing about it that has ever given out is the pitman rod, which broke a day or two ago; and he says that was probably done by a person to whom he lent the machine. But Mr. Brown's mowing fields are almost entirely free from rocks, which doubtless has considerable to do with the durability of the machine. Brown says he cannot understand the economy of those farmers who plow out rocks, and then plow them in again. He don't believe a farmer can wear out the rocks by any such treatment, but that the rocks will surely wear out the farmer.

Last Sunday afternoon an iron-clad temperance meeting was held at Sebec (Chase's Corner). Several of the temperance workers were present from Dover and Foxcroft, and the meeting is reported as having been an interesting one.

PERSONAL.

J. F. Sprague, Esq., and Mr. J. S. Pullen, of Monson, were in town yesterday They report the political skies as bright in their section of Piscataquis. There is no doubt as to the redemption of the county this fall by the Republicans.

Mr. J. W. Hodgkins, an old and well-known resident of this place, was confined to his house all last winter and spring, but he is now able to ride out frequently, and his friends have hopes that he may recover. He suffers from a heart complaint.

Capt. Alton P. Fassett, has sold his blacksmithing business in this place, and is in hopes to succeed in closing up his affairs so that he may be able to start for the West about the middle of next month. He has a great many friends, and all regret that he has resolved to go away. He has resigned his position as Captain of Company H, as will be seen in another place.

H. E. Nickerson, of Dover, had one of his thumbs broken the other day by machinery, in which it was caught.

THE OLD BUGLE CALL.

BY LEANDER S COAN

Bring out the old battered bugle
That sounded in Sixty-one,
Rousing each gray haired father,
Daughter and darling son
We have not all forgotten
Those stirring heroic days
When the fairest for the bravest
Twined their immortal bays.

It is well that some see clearly
The drift of commercial stream,
And delve on the side swift rushing
The light of Truth to beam
And to swear, in the light of those lessons,
And the lost light of loyal eyes
That we kindle anew the signals
That shall flash athwart our skies

The lessons the brave dead teach us
As though they were with us yet,
The look of whose eyes as we closed them
We never can forget,
When they lay in the dumps of dress'ng
After the battle was done
Pulseless cold and livid,
Cold under tropic sun

We forgive the brave who fought us
Nor cling to one thought of war
But will hate forever and deeply
The Cause which they suffered for
And will hate it and fight it forever,
And them if they dare defend
The traitor doctrine of secession
Which we thought the war would end

We have guns yet, swords and saddles
That were red with loyal stains,
Hid now under rust, which encrusts them
Will each vein of blue and runs
And until Time's hand effaces,
Those tokens of loyal death
We swear that o'er hearts shall be loyal
And our lives be the loyal breath

And whatever guise that serpent
State Sovereignty shall wear
We will roar of that guise and rattle
Till its heart from its carcase we tear
For we learned to hate treason and traitors,
And will teach to our daughters and sons
The lessons from lips and faces
Made lived by State Sovereign guns
